Dear Daniel,

I am pleased to inform you that the Jacob Blaustein Center for Scientific Cooperation has awarded you a grant of up to $500 (accordingly your expense and the other financial support from the university) for your participation in the “the 18th International Society for Behavioral Ecology (ISBE) Congress”.

Which will take place in Stockholm Sweden, from July 28th –to August 2nd, 2022.

After returning from the conference, you have to submit a travel expense report within 30 days to the BCSC office and submit a copy of your boarding pass (by email). Accurate expenses report not predicted expenses report.

The payment will be through scholarship payment after you return from the conference and will submit the requested documents.

Best regards,

Hagit,

Hagit Yahel
